

Happenings in the Music World

PIETRO
A.YON,
ORGANIST,
ST FRANCIS XAVIER'S
CHURCH FIRST ORGAN
RECITAL, AEOLIAN HALL

Continued from fourth page.

going public, for of all that masters' works have, vocal quartets have come in to a minimum amount of exploitation.

Francis Macmillan, who makes his first appearance in New York in three years at Carnegie Hall on Wednesday evening, will play the following programme:

Sonata in E major.....	Harp
Symphonic Fantasy.....	Lalo
Chaconne with organ accompaniment; Vitali	Tchaikovsky
Musica.....	To Aulin
Gavotte.....	Mozart; Alceste
Introduction and Tarentelle.....	Sarasate

This is the programme of Hans Kroll's cello recital in Carnegie Chamber Music Hall on Wednesday evening:

Sonata in D major; Allegro-Adagio-Meno- zetto.....	Locatelli
Russian music.....	Glinka
Arioso.....	Borodin
Percy du Souci.....	Borodin
Fantaisie d'Automne.....	Arensky
Scherzo.....	Popoff
Sonata Fantasy.....	Popoff
French music.....
Claire d'Eté; Melancolique du Bonheur and La Soirée des Fleurs.....	Dumont
Transcendental de la Maison Jules; Les Dunes et le Balcon.....	Debussy
Enz Act de Xaviers; Melodie Romantique; Melodie Espagnole and Spinning Wheel.....	Dubois

The Russian Cathedral Choir will give a concert of Lenten music in Aeolian Hall on Friday evening. This will be the programme:

The Lord's Prayer.... The Customary Chant
Sohle Joseph.... A Serbian Chant
I behold thy richly adorned dwelling place. Trio.... D. Borodin

The song of the Archangel.... N. A. Rimsky-Korsakoff

When I am unrighteous man.... L. Malatinian

9 count, let us bless Jesus.... D. Borodin

The Wise Thief.... Dubois

Te Deum.... Rachmaninoff

Te Deum.... Rachmaninoff